"6A. (1) An occupant of a room or rooms in an hotel or a lodging house shall not be evicted therefrom, whether in execution of a decree or otherwise, except in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) The manager of an hotel or the owner of a lodging house wishing to evict the occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house shall apply to the Controller for a direction in that behalf and if on receipt of such application the Controller is, after giving such occupant a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the application, satisfied—

(a) that such occupant has not paid the charges due by him to the full extent allowable under this Order within the time fixed in his contract with the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house, as the case may be, or in the absence of any such contract by the seventh day of the month next following that for which the charges are payable, or

(b) that such occupant has been guilty of conduct which is a nuisance or an annoyance to the other occupants of such hotel or lodging house, or

(c) that such occupant has continuously for a period exceeding two months been absent from such hotel or lodging house or left such room or rooms unoccupied, the Controller shall make an order directing such occupant to vacate such room or rooms and to put the manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house, as the case may be, in possession thereof, and if the Controller is not so satisfied, he shall make an order rejecting the application:

Provided that where the charges due by an occupant of a room or rooms in an hotel or a lodging house have accrued due before the second day of March 1944, no application by the manager of an hotel or the owner of a lodging house, as the case may be, for evicting such occupant shall lie under this sub-paragraph on the ground of failure to pay the charges so due if such occupant pays the said charges to the full extent allowable under this Order within two months from the said date.

(3) Every order under sub-paragraph (2) directing the occupant of a room or rooms in an hotel or a lodging house to vacate such room or rooms and to put the manager of such hotel or the owner of such lodging house in possession thereof shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7, be final and shall be executed by the Court having jurisdiction to entertain a suit for ejectment in respect of such room or rooms as if it were a decree of that Court.

6B. When the manager of an hotel or the owner of a lodging house refuses to accept the charges referred to in clause (a) of sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 6A or the charges referred to in the proviso to the said sub-paragraph offered by the occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house, such occupant may—

(a) in the case of refusal to accept the charges referred to in clause (a) of the said sub-paragraph, deposit such charges with the Controller within seven days of their becoming due, and

(b) in the case of refusal to accept the charges referred to in the proviso to the said sub-paragraph, deposit such charges with the Controller within seven days of the expiry of the period of two months mentioned in the said proviso, and on receiving any such deposit the Controller shall cause a notice of the receipt of the deposit to be served on the manager of such hotel or the owner of such lodging house, as the case may be, and the amount of the deposit may be withdrawn by such manager or owner on application made by him to the Controller in that behalf.

6C. The fact that the management of an hotel or the interest of the owner of a lodging house has been transferred by assignment, sale or sub-letting shall not of itself be a ground for eviction of the occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house so long as the transferee maintains the hotel or lodging house as such.

6D. (1) Every proprietor or manager of an hotel or owner of a lodging house who intends to transfer or terminate a lease in respect of the premises in which such hotel or lodging house is situated shall give at least one month's notice of such intention to the Controller as well as to every occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house, as the case may be.

(2) At least one month before the expiration of any lease in respect of any premises in which an hotel or a lodging house is situated the manager of such hotel or the owner of such lodging house shall intimate to the Controller and to every occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house the date when such lease is due to expire.

(3) It shall be competent for the Controller in every case a notice has been received by him under sub-paragraph (1) or an intimation has been received by him under sub-paragraph (2) to authorise any occupant of a room or rooms in such hotel or lodging house and to hold the premises in which the said hotel or lodging house is situated as a lessee under the landlord thereof on the same terms and conditions on which the proprietor or manager of the hotel or the owner of the lodging house held the said premises under the said landlord or on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between such landlord and the occupants of such hotel or lodging house and any occupant so authorised shall be entitled to hold the premises on such terms and conditions as a lessee under the landlord.

(4) Any dispute between the landlord and such occupants in regard to the terms and conditions under which such premises shall be held shall be decided by the Controller and the Controller shall before deciding such dispute give to the parties concerned an opportunity of being heard and every such decision shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7, be final.

6E. For the purposes of an inquiry under this Order, the Controller may,—

(a) require the proprietor or manager of an hotel or the owner of a lodging house or the landlord of any premises in which an hotel or a lodging house is situated to produce any book of account, document or other information relating to the hotel, lodging house or such premises;

(b) enter and inspect an hotel or a lodging house; and

(c) authorise any officer subordinate to him to enter and inspect an hotel or a lodging house."

By order of the Governor,

Land Acquisition

NOTIFICATIONS.

Jalpaiguri.—No. 4114L.A.—25th February 1944.—The following agreement is published under section 42 of the Land Acquisition Act, I of 1894, for general information.

S. BANERJEE, Secy.

Agreement.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made this 24th day of February 1944, between the Ramakrishna Mission, a Society (registered under the Indian Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860) and having its registered office at Belur, thana Bally, in the district of Howrah (hereinafter called the Society), of the one part and the Governor of the Province of Bengal (hereinafter called the Governor) of the other part.

WHEREAS for the purpose of the extension of the Ramakrishna Maternity and Child Welfare Centre of the Ramakrishna Mission Ashrama, Jalpaiguri, the Society has applied to the Government of Bengal for the acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, of the piece or parcel of land containing 0·094 of an acre or thereabout situate in the taluk Kharia, pargana Baikunthapur, police-station Jalpaiguri, in the district of Jalpaiguri, and more particularly described in the Schedule hereto and delineated in the plan* hereunto annexed.

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Bengal, being satisfied by an enquiry held under section 40 of the said Act that the proposed acquisition is needed for the aforesaid purpose and that the said work is likely to prove useful to the public has consented to acquire on behalf of the Society the piece or parcel of land hereinbefore described.

AND WHEREAS the said Government of Bengal has required the Society under the provisions of section 41 of the abovementioned Act to enter into the agreement with the Governor hereinafter contained. Now this indenture witnesseth that it is hereby agreed and declared as follows:—

1 On demand the Society shall and will pay to the said Government of Bengal all and every compensation in respect of the said land tendered, paid or awarded or to be tendered, paid or awarded by the Collector under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, or by Court to which a reference under Part III of the said Act may be made or by the Court or Courts to which an appeal from the award of the said Court may be preferred and all costs, charges and expenses of the proceedings in the aforesaid Courts or otherwise incidental to the proposed acquisition or payable in respect thereof under the provisions of the said Act

2 On demand made by the said Collector the obligations of the Society under the last preceding clause not being thereby limited, the Society shall and will deposit with the said Collector such sum or sums of money as in his discretion the said Collector may in anticipation estimate to be necessary for the purpose mentioned in the last preceding clause.

3 On payment by the Society of all demands under the foregoing first clause or in the discretion of the said Government of Bengal (on deposit by the Society of all estimated amounts as provided in the second clause), but not before possession shall have been taken under the provisions of the abovementioned Act, the Governor shall make over possession of the said land to the Society and shall execute and do all such acts and deeds as may be necessary and proper for effectually vesting the same in the Society.

4. The said land shall be held by the Society for the purpose of such extension work as is hereinbefore mentioned and without the sanction in writing of the said Government of Bengal first had and obtained for no other purpose whatsoever.

5. The said extension work shall be completed (and fully equipped in all respects ready for use) within two years from the date on which possession of the said land shall have been given to the Society.

6. Should the said extension work be not completed (and fully equipped in all respects ready for use) within the period stated in the last preceding clause or within such further period as in its discretion may be prescribed or allowed by the said Government of Bengal or should the said land at any time thereafter cease for a period of 3 (three) consecutive months, to be held and used or cease to be required for the purpose or purposes provided for in the foregoing fourth clause then and in any such case, the said Government may summarily re-enter upon and take possession of the said land together with all buildings thereon, whether such buildings were erected before or after transfer of the land to the Society and thereupon the interest of the Society in the said land and buildings shall absolutely cease and determine.

7. On taking such possession the said Government may sell or otherwise deal with the said land and buildings as it may think proper.

(i) Should the said Government sell the land with the buildings the said Government after deducting the expenses incurred in connection with the said taking of possession and with such sale shall pay the proceeds to the Society.

(ii) Should the said Government decide not to sell the land and buildings the said Government shall retain the said land and buildings thereon in which case the Governor shall repay to the Society the market value as on the day of re-entry of all the buildings erected by the Society and all sums received from the Society in respect of all and every compensation as provided in the foregoing first clause (less the statutory allowance of 15 per cent. and less any amount received on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption), but will not repay any sums paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses.

(iii) Should the said Government decide to sell the buildings only upon such sale, the Governor after deducting the expenses of taking possession and selling, pay the balance of the proceeds of sale to the Society together with the sum received from the Society in respect of the compensation for the land (less the statutory allowance of 15 per cent. and less any amount received from the Society on account of trees and buildings which are not in existence at the time of resumption), but will not repay any sum paid and received on account of costs, charges and expenses.

8. The public shall be entitled to use the Maternity Clinic subject to the rules and regulations of the Ramakrishna Mission Ashrama, Jalpaiguri.

9. Should any dispute or difference arise touching or concerning the subject matter of this agreement or any covenant, clause or thing therein contained the same shall be referred to the said Government of Bengal and the opinion and decision of the said Government upon such dispute or difference shall be final and conclusive and binding on the parties hereto.

The Schedule above referred to.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

NOTIFICATIONS.

New Delhi, the 8th January 1944.

No. P. & S.C. 1(A)/44.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause 5 of the Vegetable Oils and Oilcakes (Forward Contracts Prohibition) Order, 1944, the Central Government is pleased to exclude the following class of contracts from the provisions of the said Order, namely:—

Forward contracts for specific qualities or types of any article to which the said Order applies, and for specific delivery at a specified price delivery orders, railway receipts or bills of lading against which contracts are not transferable to third parties.

No. P. & S.C. 1/44.—Whereas it appears to the Central Government to be expedient, for securing the efficient prosecution of the war and for maintaining supplies essential to the life of the community, to prohibit certain transactions in vegetable oils and oilcakes:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of rule 81 of the Defence of India Rules, the Central Government is pleased to make the following Order, namely:—

1. (1) This Order may be called the Vegetable Oils and Oilcakes (Forward Contracts Prohibition) Order, 1944.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. In this Order,—

(iii) "forward contract" means a contract for the delivery at some future date of any article to which this Order applies;

(iv) "specified date" in relation to any article to which this Order applies means the date specified against that article in the second column of the Schedule to this Order.

3. No person shall, after the specified date for any article to which this Order applies, enter into any forward contract in that article.

4. Notwithstanding any custom, usage or practice of the trade, or the terms of any contract or any regulation of an Association relating to any contract,—

(1) every forward contract in any article to which this Order applies outstanding at the close of business on the specified date shall be deemed to be closed out at such rate as the Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette fix in this behalf, and different rates may be fixed for different classes of contracts;

(2) all differences arising out of any contract so deemed to be closed out shall be payable on the basis of the rate fixed as aforesaid and the seller shall not be bound to give, and the buyer shall not be bound to take, delivery;

(3) payment of all differences legally due from a member of an Association to another member of such Association in respect of any forward contract closed out under this clause shall be made to the Clearing House of the Association and for the purposes of calculating such differences the rate fixed by the Central Government under sub-clause (1) shall be deemed to be the settlement rate fixed by the Association under its bye-laws or other regulations which shall, for the relevant purpose, continue to have effect subject to the provisions of this Order.

5. The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exclude any contract or class of contracts from the provisions of this Order.
